

This class is designed for students with an elementary understanding of writing. It is an integration of writing, spelling, vocabulary, handwriting, scripture memorization, and reading. The writing program will begin with basic sentence structure, utilizing vivid words and adjectives. It will develop into paragraph structure, with students writing stories, poems, and essays over time. The spelling and vocabulary portion of the class will expand the student's word base for his/ her writing skills. Each student will be expected to memorize words and vocabulary each week. Additionally, scriptures will be assigned each week for memorization and cursive handwriting development. Finally, a critical portion of the class will include reading assignments.

Students will need

- 2" binder with 4 dividers (one for class writing assignments, one for writing homework, one for spelling assignments, and one for weekly work)
- Loose-leaf paper behind all dividers
- Pencil bag in binder
- Pencils
- Erasable pens
- Bible
- Thesaurus (one that fits in binder is nice)
- Dictionary (one that fits in binder is nice)
- Writing journal for independent writing
- Notebook for cursive writing/Scripture memorization

Book List for Writing Utilizing Literature

Strawberry Girl: 13 978 006 4405850

Secret of the Andes: 014 0309268

Calico Bush: 0689822855

My Side of the Mountain: 0141312424

Illyrian Adventure: 0141303131

Lily's Crossing: 0440414539

Sarah Witcher's Story: 089084754

The Cabin Faced West: 0698119363

