

READING, WRITING & HISTORY

1st – 3rd Grade (ROTATION C)

Tuesday 9:15 / 10:15

Jan Lund
(936) 525-8504
Sajalund@aol.com

CLASS SUPPLIES AND BOOKS

(1) red and (1) yellow pocket folder (no fasteners)
Please make sure your child's name is on the outside of each folder.

A small binder for class with notebook paper, a pencil pouch, pencils and erasers

(Optional but Recommended) – 3" binder to be kept at home divided into 3 sections – (1) Home Assignments, (2) History, (3) Worksheets. Graded and returned work should be filed in this binder. This will not be brought to class.

Listed below are the books which will be assigned reading.
They are listed in the order of their use.

You may either purchase these books or borrow them from the library. I have no preference as to whether they are hardback or paperback. Amy at The Homeschool House in The Woodlands will offer a discount if you let her know they are for your class at The Training Center.

FIRST SEMESTER

Mummies (All Aboard Reading) – by Joyce Milton, Illustrated by Susan Swan

Anansi the Spider: A Tale from the Ashanti - by Gerald McDermott

A Bible with the following stories presented on their reading level:
Joseph and his coat of many colors
The birth of Moses
(Optional) King Nebuchadnezzar (Daniel, chapter 4)
The birth of Jesus

SECOND SEMESTER

The Story about Ping (Reading Railroad Books) -by Marjorie Flack, Illus. by Kurt Wiese

At the Beach – Huy Voun Lee

The Making of a Knight: How Sir James Earned His Armor – by Patrick O'Brien